

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

To Veronica McDermott, C.A.P.P. Co-ordinator with the North Eastern Health Board who shared with me the task of writing these materials. Veronica's generosity in giving of her time, her expertise and of herself was greatly appreciated.

Thanks also to Christine Hobson who provided detailed illustrations for each story and added many original ideas.

To the Steering Committee in the North Eastern Health Board for the advice and guidance given in the early stages of the work of this project.

To the principals and selected teaching staff at the Holy Family Special School, Cootehill and Sperrinview Special School, Dungannon for all their efforts and valuable comments. Your willingness to contribute to the development of the materials, to pilot and evaluate them was central to the work and was greatly appreciated.

To Sonya Gibbons, teacher in St Laserian's Special School, Carlow who provided specialist comment and who also piloted and evaluated the materials.

To the parents of those pupils involved in the pilot, thank you for endorsing the necessity for and the importance of this work.

Thanks also to the Department of Science and Education, Dublin and to the Southern Education and Library Board who facilitated planning days for teaching staff.

Gemma Stokes,
C.A.W.T Development Officer
